

Why Get Involved?

Students involved in extra-curricular activities are more likely to become leaders, more willing to complete tasks, more willing to voice opinions, and more likely to graduate from high school. Extra-curricular activities are also a good way to explore social, political, and career interests.

Pine Ridge has a wide variety of extra-curricular activities available for students in a number of different areas.

Check out the Student section at www.PineRidgeSecondarySchool.ca to find out who to contact for more information about a particular club, team, band, group, committee, or council.

An ever-changing collection of interests means there's something new all the time. Don't see something you want? Help create it by taking your idea to a teacher who might supervise it, who can in turn approach the principal for permission.

- demonstrate satisfactory academic progress.
- display appropriate behaviour that represents the positive image of all Pine Ridge students.
- participate as member of a team, and respecting team and coaching decisions
- have their parent/guardian sign the student athlete contract for each sports team they participate on

If a student fails to meet any of the above criteria, the privilege of participation in a sport can be revoked by the coach or by the school administration.
