

Youth Advisory Committee – Volunteer Opportunity

Want to be involved in the community you live in?

Durham Regional Police Service (DRPS) is seeking applications for Youth Advisory Committee (YAC) Members.

DRPS is committed to working towards a more equitable, inclusive and effective policing service, which includes addressing the safety and security needs of the diverse communities of Durham Region.

The establishment of a YAC will allow DRPS to create a safe space for youth who represent Durham's diverse communities and provide a platform for their voices to be heard. The YAC will provide relevant and timely advice to DRPS while enhancing harmony and communication between the community and DRPS.

The committee will be comprised of thirteen youth volunteer members from within the Durham Region. The YAC will run bi-monthly meetings, starting on June 3rd, 2021. The YAC meetings will be entirely online, with the possibility of in-person meetings depending on COVID-19 guidelines issued by the Government of Ontario.

To qualify for the Youth Advisory Committee volunteer position, applicants must:

- Be between the ages of 16-24
- Reside in the Regional Municipality of Durham
- Be in good moral character
- No criminal convictions where a pardon has not been granted
- Legally eligible to work in Canada
- Prior volunteer experience

As part of the selection process for this position, all applicants will be assessed through a letter of interest, resume review, virtual interview, and background check. Applications close at 4:00pm on April 30th, 2021.

If you require accommodation at any time during the application process, please email 7281@drps.ca. Appropriate assistance will be provided pursuant to the Service's Accessibility directive.

To learn more about the Youth Advisory Committee and apply, visit our recruit-page and look for the Youth Advisory Committee posting under View All Jobs:

<https://recruitdrps.durham.ca/>